Release of Information for Social Media & Advertising:

The Doyle Community Center and Sturgis Recreation maintain a Website and Facebook page, as well as produce advertising flyers to highlight the accomplishments of our programs and to inform the community of upcoming events & activities. In creating these publications, it may become necessary to post pictures of previous participants involved with the activities. All material to be posted will be for appropriate content and relevancy. If you do not wish to have your photo posted in the publications, please notify the Director, in writing, upon receiving this notification, that posting of photos is not permitted. Thank you!

Refund Policy

Cash refunds will not be made except in cases where programs have been cancelled. Notification of individual cancellations must be received before the first class in order to receive a letter of credit. No Refunds or Credit will be issued after the first class has taken place. Classes will not be pro-rated.
